

Grievance Redressal Policy

HR POLICY DOCUMENT

Grievance Redressal Policy

Effective: January 2025 | Version 1.0

1. PURPOSE

This policy provides a fair and confidential mechanism for employees to raise grievances and seek resolution.

2. SCOPE

- Grievances may relate to work conditions, interpersonal issues, discrimination, harassment, leave, attendance, appraisal, or any policy interpretation
- This does not replace statutory channels (e.g., POSH committee for sexual harassment)

3. CHANNELS FOR RAISING GRIEVANCE

- Primary: Discuss with immediate manager
- Escalation: HR business partner or grievance@company.com
- Anonymous: Whistleblower channel (ethics@company.com) for sensitive cases
- Grievance may be raised in writing (email or portal) with brief description and desired outcome

4. PROCESS & TIMELINES

- Acknowledgement within 2 working days
- Preliminary discussion with employee and relevant parties within 5 working days
- Resolution or written response within 15 working days; complex cases may extend with notice
- Employee may appeal once to the next level (Department head / HR head) within 7 days of response

5. CONFIDENTIALITY & NON-RETALIATION

- Grievances are treated confidentially to the extent possible
- No retaliation against employees for raising grievances in good faith
- Retaliation is a separate violation and may result in disciplinary action

6. RECORDS

- HR maintains summary records (without identity where anonymous) for trend analysis and policy review
- Individual case details are stored as per data retention policy

7. CONTACT

Grievance: grievance@company.com | HR: hr@company.com | Ethics: ethics@company.com